We are now taking registrations for Learning South West's annual summer conference which this year is being run in partnership with Skills for Business.

Learning South West's annual conferences are renowned for their creativity and bringing people together to form productive relationships which benefit learners. Our previous conference evaluations have proved that you will leave inspired, refreshed, with a clear plan of action and with new networks of colleagues to support you.

Who should attend the conference?

Are you responsible for managing training, curriculum management, course design, business development or employer engagement in the following areas?

- Health
- Land & environment
- Social care
- Retail
- Hospitality & tourism
- Transport & distribution
- Food & drink
- Learning
- Property & facilities management
- Manufacturing

Do you want to share ideas between sector skills councils, training providers and employers about your subject area?

If so, the sector skills councils want to meet you to plan together how to use the building blocks of language, literacy and numeracy skills to enable learners to increase their confidence and deepen their knowledge and love of their subject.
