Learning South West's annual conferences are renowned for their creativity and bringing people together to form productive relationships which benefit learners. Our previous conference evaluations have proved that you will leave inspired, refreshed, with a clear plan of action and with new networks of colleagues to support you.

Who should attend the conference?

Are you responsible for managing training, curriculum management, course design, business development or employer engagement in the following areas?

- Health
- Land & environment
- Social care
- Retail
- Hospitality & tourism
- Transport & distribution
- Food & drink
- Learning
- Property & facilities management
- Manufacturing

Do you want to share ideas between sector skills councils, training providers and the employers about your subject area?

If so, the sector skills councils want to meet you to plan together how to use the building blocks of language, literacy and numeracy skills to enable learners to increase their confidence and deepen their knowledge and love of their subject.

The aims of the conference are to:

- Share the latest developments in how work is changing in your sector
- Make Skills for Life the building blocks for how people

- can learn
- Create lasting subject specific networks which link to sector skills councils

There will be an opportunity to hear and work with:

- Malcolm Gillespie - South West Regional Director for the Learning and Skills Council (LSC)
- Sector Skills Councils representatives from
  - Improve
  - Lantra
  - Skills for Logistics
  - Skillsmart Retail
  - Asset Skills
  - Unionlearn (SW TUC)
  - GoSkills
  - Skills for Health
  - Skills for Care
  - Proskills
  - Tourism Skills Network
- Lifelong Learning UK (LLUK)
- ENTO
- Institute for Learning (IfL)
- John Tempest - South West Regional Skills for Life Director
- Jenny Lingham - Lightbulb Project South West
- plus a surprise “passionate” speaker - to be confirmed

Delegate fee: £50.00 per person
