“Making a difference for teachers and trainers: future directions”

Purpose of the Day

The three year central funding for the SWitch Centre for Excellence in Teacher Training (CETT) ends at the end of this year, although CETT activities will continue. This event is a celebration of the success of the projects that have been funded through the CETTs and the support that they have provided for teacher educators.

Aims & Objectives

To celebrate the achievements of SWitch over the last three years and to look forward to future CETT activity that can support teachers and trainers, by having the opportunity to

- hear about current policy development from the Institute for Learning (IFL)
- hear about the work of Year 3 Projects
- receive updates from Years 1 & 2 Projects
- participate in activities offered in dissemination workshops
- share practice and progress with colleagues

Project led Workshop Sessions

Delegates will have an opportunity to attend a number of project led workshops during the day on the following themes:

- "Mirror, mirror on the wall ..." Supporting Reflective Practice through Continuing Professional Development (CPD)
- The Evaluation Toolkit
- Mentoring in Understanding & Managing Challenging Behaviour
- Recruitment, Induction, Initial Assessment & On-going Support
- Can You Really Cope with Equality & Diversity?
- Diversifying the Workforce

Colleagues from Peninsula CETT will also be leading workshops on:

- The ICE Project - Teaching for Innovation, Creativity & Enterprise
- Embedding Sustainability in Teacher Education

For more information on all these workshops to go: <http://www.learning-southwest.org.uk/page/SWitch-CETT-Dissemination-Conference---29-April-10>
