

Annmarie is an experienced trainer and adviser in the learning and skills sector. She has delivered SFL predominantly numeracy in most learning settings with particular experience in supporting 16-19 year old learners. She has supported organisations on a whole organisation approach to embedding SFL both operationally and strategically on a consultancy basis and has extensive experience in delivering SFL CPD regionally and nationally..

Annmarie's most recent projects include:

Development Adviser for the national Skills for Life Improvement programme.

Professional Development Adviser for the national Skills for Life Improvement programme.

National and regional Functional Skills trainer for LSN, LSC, LSW, Niace and CFBT

Financial Literacy national trainer for Niace

Assessor plan trainer for the LSC

Numeracy Counts trainer for Niace

Food Safety and Health and Safety trainer