

Val Barker is a freelance consultant, teacher, trainer and writer specialising in English and Literacy; she has particular interests in Further and Adult Education, teacher-training and the current 14-19 education reforms. She is experienced in the editing and writing of a range of marketing, academic and teaching materials. A member of the Kaleidoscope group.